EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS

The plan of tracing descent adopted in this book is the same used by the Rev. Horace Hayden in his "Virginia Genealogies," and will be readily understood by anyone who will examine the illustration that follows. On page 43, the children of Hugh Brent are numbered first by Arabic numerals from 16 to 32, then by Roman numerals from i to xvii. The first child is given thus: "+ 16 i James." The plus sign indicates the continuation of his record as the head of a family on page 62; the number 16 is his family number, and the letter i is the number of his order of birth. By turning to page 62, he will be found recorded as the head of a family, his record reading thus, paraphrased: James Brent, 4th generation, son of Hugh 3rd generation, son of Hugh 2nd generation, son of Hugh 1st generation. However, the easiest way to get your line is to look in the index, find your name, or your father's name and number, and turn the pages backward until you find the record of your entire line to the immigrant.

m., married.

d. u. m., died unmarried.

d. s. p., died sine prole, without issue.

d. v. p., died in her or his father's lifetime.

(w. 1760), will was probated in 1760.

(i. 1760), inventory was recorded 1760.

L. D. W. B., Lancaster Deed & Will Book; the first letter of each county designated the county, except Fr. for Frederick; where the county is not named, Lancaster is to be assumed, and where the state is not named, Virginia is to be assumed.

M. B., with the first letter of a county preceding, signified marriage bond of that county.

A GENTLEMAN OF THE old school,

FOREWORD

WHEN my grandfather Landon Newton Brent, Sr., died in 1909 at "Wellington," in Nelson County, Va., I fell heir to some old diaries, letters, account books and family registers, etc., dating back to 1711. Many of these old papers had come up from Lancaster County, Va. Several years later my attention was called to Mr. Thomas B. Chilton's genealogical history of the Brent Family published in the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography.

Knowing the regularity in each generation of the appearance of the given name "HUGH" in my family, and not finding it in Mr. Chilton's work, except in the Charles Brent line of Stafford County, I began a personal search to satisfy my curiosity.

At the Virginia Land Office I found that one Hugh Brent settled in Isle of Wight County, 1642, on land adjoining Capt. Peirce. Knowing the trend of migration following that date, from the formation of new shires or counties, I found, after much searching, the will of one Hugh Brent in Lancaster County, probated 1671; and he named among his children, a son Hough.

After that my work to 1800, was just routine—searching the Will and Deed books, the Order books, Land Causes, and studying the marriage bonds of Lancaster and adjoining counties.

Shortly after 1800, began the Great Migration to the Western Country. The Revolutionary War had been over for twenty years; the new Federal government was fostering the settling of this new country through the issuance of land bounty warrants to soldiers who had won freedom from English taxation. The Indians had been pushed further across the mountains, and those soldiers of the State Militia who had done the pushing, had seen the fertile fields west of the Alleghenies.

Kentucky became a state in 1792; Tennessee in 1796, and Ohio in 1803.

The departure of a family to the new country was a great event which called for much celebration, and many of the neighbors rode on horseback for several days to wish them Godspeed.

As a result of this migration I find descendants of Hugh Brent, the immigrant, leaving from Lancaster, Faquier, Frederick, Loudon and Charlotte Counties, Virginia, for Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio and Illinois, and later for Louisiana, Alabama and Texas.

These settlers did not take along with them clerks who were willing or could do the yeoman service of a Stretchley or a Dale, as the early Lancaster County records attest. Then the ravages of war and fire have destroyed a great deal of what was recorded. As a result I have had to depend almost entirely on family registers kept by a few genealogically minded souls who must have held in their hearts a fond memory for relatives left behind in the mother state of Virginia.

If there is any relationship between the Hugh Brent and the Giles and George Brent lines as published by Mr. Chilton, I have been unable to find it in the records searched. The Charles and Hannah (Innes) Brent line of Stafford County, included in Mr. Chilton's history of the Maryland and Woodstock branches, does not belong there. Mr. Chilton took the children of George Brent of Lancaster County, and transplanted them in Stafford County as the children of a George Brent living there. Then he takes Charles Brent, one of the above children, who was named a minor in his father's will in 1748, and has him a husband and father in 1727. I believe the deed, made in 1710, Hugh Brent(5) to his daughter Mary and son Charles, proves my case conclusively.

The source of this work being entirely factual, very little will be found in it to appease those seekers after glorious ancestors. This latter group (and there are many in all families), will have to be satisfied that they were sprung from hardy stock, or else they would not be among those present; that all of their early ancestors could sign their names, and that none of them had been put in gaol as early as 1740 (that was as late as I paged the Order Books of Lancaster County).

The immigrant Hugh was made constable of Lancaster County in 1665; his progeny held practically every civil office in Lancaster County before the third generation, and of the seven accredited officers of the Revolutionary War, six were his offspring.

No work of this kind, following the many lines into practically every state of the union, and also one province of Canada, and into old Mexico, can be done perfectly. Any errors either of commission or omission will be corrected after the publication of this work upon authentic evidence of the mistake. To those members of the family whose help was most beneficial, I offer my most sincere thanks: Mr. Charles Scott Brent, of Lexington, Ky.; Mr. Thomas N. Wrenn, of New York City; Mrs. Linda F. Braucht, of Des Moines, Iowa; Mrs. Jane C. Brooks, of Smithshire, Ill.; Mrs. Lawrence D. Brent, of Clarendon, Va.; Mr. Bernard Cameron Brent, of Kilmarnock, Va.; Miss Allie Lee Brent, of Gibson Station, Va.; and Mr. Frank D. Fuller, of Memphis, Tenn.

THE BRENT FAMILY OF SOMERSET AND KENT, ENGLAND

IT is recorded in the Red Book of the Knights Fees in the Exchequer that "Odo de Brent*, at the time of the Conquest, was Lord of Cossington. The name of Odo's son was not known, but his grandchild was Jeffrey, whose son was Nicholas, whose son was Sir Robert Brent, and his son was Robert, who had a son Robert, and his son was Robert. So there were four Roberts successively. The son of the last was John, and his son was Robert, and his son was likewise Robert, which Robert married Margaret and had two sons, viz., John and Robert. The said John who married Pontfoot, died anno 1524, and had two sons, William and Richard, which William had Richard to his son, who married the daughter of Lord Stirton and had Anne who was married to Thomas Lord Paulet by whom he had a daughter who was married to Hobby and died without issue. So that the eldest line ended in the time of Queen Elizabeth. Richard the son of John the brother of William aforesaid had issue, Stephen, Giles and John. Stephen had John to his son, to whom, after the death of Hobby, Cossington descended as next heir; his son also was John who possessed the land 1676. From Giles Brent descended Thomas Brent of Salisbury, but John the brother of Giles, died without issue. The aforesaid Robert, the son of Robert by Margaret in 1487 . . ." (From De Bow's Review, 1859).

According to Collinson the name Brent (from an Anglo-Saxon word meaning to burn), as applied to certain portions of the coast,

*The name of Odo de Brent does not occur in that part of the Domesday Book relating to Somerset, but an Odo surnamed Baucas and his grandson Geffrey, are mentioned as holding lands under the abbots of Glastonbury at an early period. Surnames did not become hereditary in England until late in the eleventh century, and were not common until Henry II, circa 1162, introduced the practice of commuting military service for what was called scutage (shield-money). They were not legally recognized until Henry IV (1413-1422), passed his "Statute of Additions."

Descendants of Hugh Brent

occurs in the annals of Glastonbury before the time of the Danish invasions (787-1066). It was, he says, to the devastations caused by the Danes that some had traced a fancied origin of the name. (Va. Mag. of Hist. & Biog., Vol. 12, p. 445).

Collinson's account of Cossington, the home of the Brents in Somerset, contains a somewhat extended history of the family from the earliest date, and it is, therefore, quoted in full.

Cossington

In the time of Henry I (1100-1135), this manor was in the possession of Gilbert Marshall, of England, and was by him conveyed to Jordan Ridel, a descendant of which Jordan, of the same name, granted it in 1254 to Robert de Brent, to be held of him and his heirs by service of a knight's fee, which service William Ridel, son of this last Jordan, granted over to Sir Baldwin Malet, of Enmore (MS., Palmer).

This Robert de Brent was the first that assumed the surname of Brent, from having his habitation at South Brent, in this county, where he was possessed of considerable estates, which continued in his family till the last age. His grandfather was called Sauvinus de Turre, and was by Henry de Blois, Abbott of Glastonbury, constituted porter of that abbey, with certain lands, and other profit of victuals, clothing and money, annexed to that office; all of which profits, together with the office, were again granted by Michael, the then abbott, to this Robert,* and to his heirs, to be by them held in as ample a manner as Robert the Son of Sauvin his father, or Sauvin his grandfather, ever held them, provisionally, that they and their servants should take the same due care of Strangers, sick people, and others, who came thither for God's Sake. This Robert de Brent died before 46 Henry III (1262) leaving by Millicent his wife (afterwards married to Raymond Malet) a Son of his own name.

Which Robert de Brent 5 Edw. I (1277) attended that King into Gascony, as he did in most of his expeditions into Scotland, being then a Knight. 25 Edw. I (1297) he was a knight of the shire for Somerset at the parliament then held at Westminster. He died about 2 Edw. II (1309),

*One of the barons who signed the Magna Charta, 1215.

§ Some Allied Families

Isabella his wife, daughter of Simon de Montacute, surviving him. He was the first of the family that used a seal of his arms, viz.: a wivern, as it is now borne, and has generally been used by his descendants. He was the father of another Robert, who was also a knight and a great benefactor to the abbey of Glastonbury. He married Claricia daughter and heir of Sir Adam de la Ford, of Ford, in the parish of Bawdrip, by whom he had the manor of Ford, and other lands in this county, Wilts, Hants, and Essex. He had by her a son of his own name, who succeeded him at Cossington, and also another son called John, who, settling himself at Charing, in Kent, on some lands which were Sir Adam de la Ford's, became the progenitor of a family which continued there with great dignity for many generations, and at last by some heir female had their possessions in the time of Queen Elizabeth transferred to the family of Deering.

Besides these sons, he had two daughters, Havysia, the wife of Hugh de Popham, and Joan, wife of Thomas Deneband. He was buried on the north side of the choir of the abbey church of Glastonbury.

Robert de Brent, son of the last mentioned Robert, married Elizabeth, daughter of William Deniband, and died 25 Edw. III (1357), being then succeeded by John Brent, who married Joan, daughter and heir of John le Eyre, of Middlezoy, by whom he had a manor in that parish held of the Lady Stury by the service of half a knight's fee, and several other lands in this neighborhood.

John Brent, of Cossington, son of John, 1 Henry. V (1413), was twice married; his first wife was Ida, daughter of Sir John Beauchamp, of Lillisdon, knt., by whom he had issue Sir Robert Brent, his successor in the estate of Cossington, and Joan, first married to Thomas Horsey, of Horsey, Esq., and afterwards to Thomas Tretheke, of Tretheke, in the county of Cornwall, Esq. To his second wife he married Joan, the daughter of Sir Robert Latimer, knt., by whom he had a son called John.

Sir Robert Brent, his son by his former wife, and heir to this estate, married Jane, daughter of John Harewell, of Wotton, in the county of Warwick, who survived him and had this manor for her dower, which was, after her death, together with the rest of the estate, entered upon by Joan, his sister and heir by the whole blood, to the exclusion of John, son of John Brent by the second marriage. But this Joan being in a state of insanity, the fines that were levied in her name were not sufficient to bar the heir male, who, after several suits at law, and at length an arbitration by John Hody (afterwards chief justice of the King's Bench) 10 Henry VI (1440), was adjudged the right heir, by virtue of two entails made in the time of Edw. II, and Rich. II (1307; 1377), and soon after this manor was again entailed to this John Brent and the heirs of their body forever.

The eldest son of this John Brent was called Robert, and married Margaret, daughter of Hugh Malet, of Currypool, by whom he had another John, who added to his estate the manors of Goodwin's Bower and West Bagborough, which he purchased of Thomas Godwyn, as also (from his wife Maud, the daughter and co-heir of Sir Walter Pouncefoot) the manor of Compton-Pouncefoot, and Pouncefoot Hill, all which descended to William Brent, their eldest son, under age.

Which William had livery of his lands granted him 15 Henry VIII (1524), although he was not then twenty-one years old. He married a daughter of Lord Stourton, by whom he had one son, Richard, who died 23 Eliz. (1581). and was succeeded by Anne, his only daughter and heir, married to Lord Thomas Poulett, son of the Marquis of Winchester, and was mother of Elizabeth, wife of Giles Hoby, Esq., which two ladies sold and squandered away all the patrimony of this ancient family. The manor of Cossington, with Ford, and part of Godwin's Bower, was purchased by John Brent, the heir male of the family, viz., son of Stephen, son of John, second son of John Brent and Maud Pouncefoot. Which John, by that marriage, was an officer under William Warham, Archbishop of Canterbury, and afterwards under the treasurer of Calais.

It appears by papers found at Cossington that, upon the dissolution of the religious houses, he was employed by the commissioners to take account of the lands and muniments of such of them as were within this county, particularly of the abbey of Clive, to which he seems to have been steward. This John was twice married; his first wife was a daughter and co-heir of Thomas Godwyn; his second was Mary, granddaughter and sole heir of Thomas Culpeper, of the city of London. He died in 1557, and was buried at Bexley, in the county of Kent.

§ Some Allied Families

Stephen Brent, son of John,* was a lawyer, and lived at Dorchester, in a house that was his mother's in whose right he had several other lands in that county and in Kent, all which were sold by his son John, upon his purchase of this manor of Cossington, an estate in which he seems to have taken great delight. This John died here in 1610, leaving behind him a son of his own name, who was seventy-eight years in possession of this manor, and died A.D., 1692; but though twice married, left no children. His first wife was Winifred, daughter of Sir John Arundel, of Lanheron, in Cornwall, and his second was Mary, daughter of Sir Henry Ludlow, knt. On his death one Hodges, a poor man, then living near Highgate, was by Virdict found to be grandson of Anne, daughter of Stephen, and real heir to the estate, which he sold soon after to Mr. Robert West, of the Inner Temple, who had assisted him in the discovery of his title to this inheritance. Whence the manor of Cossington came to Sir John Gresham, bart., who sold it to Benjamin Allen, Esq., the present possessor.

The living of Cossington is rectorial, in the deanery of Pawlett, and was in 1292 valued at ten marks. The Rev. Charles Hobbs is patron and incumbent.

The church, which is dedicated to St. Mary, is of one pace, with a tower at the west end, containing a clock and five bells.

In the chancel floor is a brass plate, whereon are engraved the effigies of John Brent, Esq., who died Aug. 22, 1524, and Maud, his wife, with an inscription to their memory; and on the north wall another inscription to John, son of John Brent, Esq., who died Jan. 24, 1691, aged 80 years.

It will be noticed in the foregoing account, that Sir Robert de Brent who married Claricia, daughter and heir of Sir Adam de la Ford, had a second son John, who settled at Charing in Kent, and was the ancestor of a family which continued there for many generations.

The account given of this branch of the family in Hasted's History of Kent, is quoted in full below.

*Second son of John Brent and Maude Pouncefoot.

THE HISTORY OF KENT

Charing, 1367.

Wickins is a manor in the Southern part of this parish, adjoining to Westwell, in which part of the lands of it lie. It was originally the patrimony of the family of Brent, and was their most antient seat. Robert Brent, the first of this name mentioned in their pedigree, lived in the reign of Edward II, and is styled of Charing, as were his several descendants afterwards, one of whom, William, son of Hugh Brent, married Juliana, relict of Thomas Paunsherst, of this parish, by whom he inherited the Manor of Pevington, and other estates near this place. He died anno 27 Henry VI, leaving issue a Son Hugh Brent, who was of Charing, and had issue four Sons, of whom William Brent, Esq., the eldest, inherited this Manor, and resided at it; and Robert, the second Son of Wilsborough, an ancestor of the Brents of that place.

At length his great-grandson Thomas Brent, Esq., succeeding to this Manor, resided at it till the 12th year of Q. Elizabeth (1570), when becoming heir to Wilsborough, by the devise of his kinsman, Robert Brent, of that place, who died without issue, he removed thither, where he died likewise without issue in 1612, and was buried there. By his last will he bequeathed his manor or tenement called Wickins Device and Caprons in Charing and Westwell, and all the lands and appurtenances thereto belonging, to his nephew Christopher Dering, of Charing who then occupied them. He was the fifth and youngest son of John Dering of Surrenden-Dering, Esq., by Margaret, sister of the above-mentioned Thomas Brent, and married Mildred, daughter of Francis Swann, of Wye, gent., by whom he had several children, of whom the eldest, John Dering, was of Wickins, gent., as was his eldest son Christopher Dering, gent.

Weever, in his Funeral Inscriptions, published in 1631, mentions several members of the Brent Family of Kent. He gives the following inscription from a tomb at Kensington:

Orate pro animabus Willemi Brent, arm. & Elizabethe uxoris ejus, filie Rise Madris.

The tomb is ancient but has no date.

Concerning Charing, he says:

In the year 1590 this church was with fire consumed

. . . The windows and the gravestones (where-in divers of the antient and worthy family of Brent were memorialized) at this time were defaced, yet on the outside of the Bellfrey do remain carved in stone the badge of Edward IV (1461-1483), and a wiver (wyvern), being the arms of Hugh Brent, Esquire, who in the reign of Edward IV was the principal founder of that belfry, which before was of wood. From the time of Henry VI (1399-1413), the family of Brent, being branched out of the antient stock of Brent in Somersetshire (of which house Sir Robert de Brent was a baron of the Parliament in the time of Edward I (1272-1307), both flourished as the prime name of this parish until Thomas Brent, Esquire (the last male of the line), did remove to Wilsborough, where he died issueless. On the South side of the chancel here and annexed to the church, is a convenient chapel, founded by Amy Brent, widow of William Brent, Esquire, who died in the reign of Richard III (1483-1485) . . . Mr. Brent Dering of Charing is now the owner of the antient house of the Brents here, which is stored with badges of Edward IV in every quarry of glass in the hall windows, in which house also (as goes by tradition) John Brent, Esquire, feasted King Henry VIII.

From the Harleian Society, Visitation of Kent (lineage) taken 1619-1621 (Vol. 42, pp. 221-223), there is a chart of the Brent Family of Wilsborough and Charing (Kent), which shows that Robert Brent had a son Robert, who married Elizabeth, daughter of William Denebould, and they had a son John, who had a son Hugh, styled "of Charing." This Hugh had a son Hugh, who married Christine, daughter and heir of Henry de Rey, of Cherring, 14 R. 2 (1391). William, son of the above Hugh and Christine, married Julia, relict of Thomas Paunsherst, and daughter of John Gobyon of Essex, and his wife Amobilia, who was daughter of John de Pevynton, and Katherine his wife, and had two sons, William and Hugh. Hugh Brent, of Cherring, married daughter and heir of — Hunt, of Cherring, Ar., and died 1 R. 3 (1484). This lineage is carried on to 1600, but nothing more is mentioned that would connect Hugh Brent, immigrant to Virginia, with this branch of the family. As all lineages are carried from the eldest male heir, or, if no male heir survives, the eldest female heir, and as this Kent line is the only one listing a Hugh, it might be possible that the subject of this work was a younger member of this same family.

THE ROLL OF BATTEL ABBEY*

From Holinshed

The Table containing the following names, was formerly in the Abbey of Battel, in Sussex . . . The authority of this celebrated document cannot, however, be much relied upon. "There are," says Sir William Dugdale, "great errors or rather falsifications, in most of the copies of it; by attributing the derivation of many from the French, who were not all of such extraction, but merely English. For such hath been the subtilty of some monks of old, that finding it acceptable unto most to be reputed descendants to those who were companions with Duke William in his expedition, therefore to gratify them, they inserted their names into that ancient catalogue" (Burke's Peerage, 1846, p. 629).

The largest list of names is from Holinshed, many of which are duplicated. The versions of Leland and Duchesne, though much shorter, each contain names not found in either of the other lists. An attempt to vindicate the above data and set forth the correct facts pertaining to it was made by the last duchess of Cleveland in 1889. However, the character of the roll has been misunderstood; it is not a list of individuals but of family surnames, and it seems to have been intended to show which families had "come with William the Conqueror," and to have been compiled about the 14th century (Ency. Britannica, 11th edition, p. 534).

Among the list of Holinshed appears the name BRENT.

*Battel Abbey: William (the Conqueror) ordered the foundation of a monastery to be laid on the spot where he gained the victory over Harold; from which circumstance it was called BATTEL ABBEY. As it was there he won the crown, he wished the new establishment to enjoy all the privileges of the royal chapel, and having obtained the consent of the metropolitan, and of the bishop of the diocese, declared it in a full assembly of prelates and barons, exempt "from all episcopal rule and exactions." It became in the language of later times nullus diocesis (Encyc. Britannica).

OTHER BRENT IMMIGRANTS TO VIRGINIA

Below is some data from the Virginia Land Office and various County Records about the Brents not descended from Hugh, the immigrant.

Capt. Gyles Brent imported into Northumberland County Mrs. Margaret Brent (his sister), Mrs. Mary Brent (his sister), who died 1658, leaving her estate to her sister Margaret, and Mrs. Mary Brent, his wife. (Northumberland County Order Book, 1650-52.) The Overwharton Parish Register of Stafford County shows that "Col. Giles Brent of Potomac died Sept. 11th, 1679, and was buried in the Great Churchyard ye next day following." The history of this branch of the family has been printed in the Virginia Magazine of History & Biography.

Richard Brent came to Gloucester County 1653, as one of the headrights of George Thompson. Cannot find anything more concerning him.

William Brent came to Northumberland County 1651, as one of the headrights of George Coleclough. No other data concerning him.

John Brent came to Lancaster County 24 Nov. 1653, as one of the headrights of Capt. Henry Fleet. The Parish Register of Christ Church, Middlesex County, shows that "John Brent, son of John Brent and Jane, his wife, was baptized 22 August 1680." No other data concerning them.

Edmund Brent died in Westmoreland County 1659, leaving a widow and one son and one daughter, all of whom had died by 1674, leaving no issue. Giles Brent was a witness to his will.

Charles Brent—"To Mr. Wm. Fitzhugh & Mr. Charles Brent, Undertakers for Potomack Garrison . . . 28,714 Lbs. of tobacco" (Lancaster County Orders, 1680-86) No more data on this Charles.

Robert Brent—attorney for Eliz. Spencer, 13 April 1693. He is dead 1697, and his wife, Ann, is settling up his estate. She is dead by 1717. (Lancaster County Orders.)

George Brent of "Woodstock," Stafford County—will 1700. (See Va. Magazine of History & Biography.)

Thomas Brent and his son-in-law John Adams (under 21 years), of Norfolk County, Va. (mentioned in will of Wm. Knott, 1694). No more data on this Thomas Brent.

Descendants of Hugh Brent

HUGH BRENT, IMMIGRANT TO ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1642

[1] HUGH BRENT, according to the records searched, is the first member of this family to settle in either Maryland or Virginia. The earliest reference to him is found in the Virginia Land Office Records as coming to Isle of Wight County 20 June 1642, one of the headrights of Francis England, and settling on land "adjoining Capt. (Wm.) Peirce."

Capt. Wm. Peirce was in 1623, Capt. of Gov. Wyatt's guard and lieutenant governor of James Cittie. He prepared in 1629, in England, A Relation of the Present State of the Colony of Virginia, by Capt. William Perse, an Ancient Planter of twenty Years standing there. Capt. Peirce came with Sir Thomas Gates . . . He was appointed to Councill in 1631; Member of the Convention, 1625 . . . His daughter Jane was the third wife of John Rolfe (Nugent, p. 30).

Capt. Wm. Peirce, Esq., one of the Councill of State, (pattented) 2,000 Acs. on Lawnes Creek, 22 June 1635 (Nugent, p. 29). Lawnes Creek was in that part of Isle of Wight County which in 1645 became Nansimum County.

How long HUGH BRENT, immigrant, stayed in that neighborhood is not shown by the Patent Books; but it is certainly proven that he was in the "Chickacoon Country" by 1649. He and some of his neighbors might have gone on an exploration of the Northern Neck, or possibly on a foray against the Indians.

Toby Smith, "Cl. Cur. of Nansimum County, 1646," was "Cl. Cur." of Lancaster County 1654; Tobias Horton must have been with them; Epapphroditus Lawson patented land in Isle of Wight

§ Some Allied Families

1635, and was in Lancaster by 1649, and died there 1652. Many other immigrants to Isle of Wight (Va.) are found in Northumberland and Lancaster Counties about this same time.

The deposition of Thomas Gaskins, 24 May 1656, states:

. . . seven years ago, he (Gaskins) and others were to take up land in Fleetes Bay . . . they went to Corotoman Creeke, viewed the land and took up same, next going to a Creeke where HUGH BRENT now lives, we giving it the name of Haddowais Creeke . . . Roland Haddaway taking up the land that HUGH BRENT is now seated upon, there being three or four Indian Cabbins upon the sd. land . . . over a Run about the Sd. HUGH BRENT now dwelling house, we coming upon the Land over the Run . . . (Northumberland Records, 1652-58, p. 141).

11 Oct. 1654, Hugh Brent buys land from John and Eleanor (Swann) Sharpe (she married later, Richard Price, and died 1702).

6 Feb. 1655, he is granted administration papers on the estate of Walter Fleming, deceased (L. O. B., 1652-57, p. 252).

In 1656, he is on Capt. Henry Fleete's list of tithables; in 1657-58, he pays two tithes; in 1659, one; 1661-62, two, and in 1664, six tithes (L. O. B., 1655-66, p. 101, 131, 162, 199 and 302).

In 1665, Hugh Brent is appointed constable in Lancaster County (1655-66, p. 340). He is witness to deed, Griffin to Johnson, 7 Nov. 1660 (Rappahannock County).

"Mark Watkins, runaway servant of Hugh Brent" (L. O. B., 1666-80, p. 49). Hugh Brent, administrator of the estate of Lancelot Sockwell, "being his largest creditor" (Ibid., p. 75). Hugh Brent, attorney for Tobias Horton, 15 Feb. 1668; petitions for the estate of Tobias Horton, 6 Jan. 1669 (Ibid., p. 98 and 134).

Eppy Bonnison appoints Hugh Brent his attorney, 25 Jan. 1658 . . . to sell or assign land called Muscatoe Point; again in 1662 and 1665.

George Thompson and Cleare, his wife, appoint Hugh Brent their attorney, 26 July 1659 (L. O. B., 1654-1702, p. 197).

Joseph Hunt, of the Citty of Bristol (Eng.), mercht . . . appoint my trusty and well beloved friend Hugh Brent of Fleetes Bay in County of Lancaster,

Descendants of Hugh Brent

Planter, to be my lawful Atty . . . 28 August 1663
(Ibid., p. 282).

Hugh Brent patented several tracts of land in Lancaster County, Va., viz:

On 6 Feb. 1654/5, Hugh Brent is granted a certificate of land for five persons transported into the Colony: his own transportation (sic) and that of John Noble, Robt. Warner, John Girton and Mary Ochersone (Acherson?). (L. O. B., 1652-1657, p. 171).

18 March 1662, he patented 200 Acs. in Lancaster County:—
butting So. into Haddawais Creeke, E. upon the Bay, N. into the Woods, W. upon a branch of Haddawais Creeke, including three Indian Cabbins formerly granted to Capt. Henry Fleete 1652, and by him assigned to John Sharpe, and by Sd. Sharpe sold to Hugh Brent (Va. Land Book 4, p. 633).

6 May 1664, Hugh Brent patented with Abya Bonyson 200 Acs. in Lancaster County:—

Lying on Haddawais Creeke and Corotoman Creeke in Fleetes Bay . . . 200 Acs. with Toby Horton in the same district (Land Book 4, pp. 627-8).

On 10 July 1663, Hugh Brent patented 100 Acs. on Northside of the Rappahannock River in Fleetes Bay for the transportation of two persons into the Colony, viz: Wm. Lumpton and Thomas Bromstead (Ibid., p. 629).

On 7 Sept. 1657 Wm. Shorte and Wm. Lippeate patented 400 Acs. in Lancaster County, which they assigned to Hugh Brent, who assigned one half to Eppy Bonnison, and same was renewed in their names, 18 March 1662 (Ibid., p. 193).

Hugh Brent was born circa 1620 in either Kent or Somerset Counties, England, and died in Lancaster County, Va., between 8 Jan. and 13 March 1671. His port of departure in England was in all probability Bristol (see Joseph Hunt above). The name of his wife does not appear in the records searched, but it is possible that he married Mary Ochersone (Acherson?) whom he imported into the Colony in 1654 (she is not styled “servant”). He certainly was not married long before this date as his children were minors at his death; his eldest daughter married 13 Nov. 1672.

§ Some Allied Families

The fact that he left Mr. Thomas Haines (w. 1678/9), "my cast'r* hatt and one pr. of gloves," and also that two of his grandsons married members of Thomas Haine's family (Hugh, a daughter of James Haines, nephew of the above Thomas, and William, married Margaret as second wife, a daughter of his son James and Frances (Pinckard) Haines, and also because Thomas Haines was one of the overseers of his estate, certainly shows a connection that dates back before their immigration to Virginia.

Cannot find his will. He was listed as a member of the Lancaster County militia 1687, "appointed for foot Service." Richard Redock was in Isle of Wight County, 1637; John Redicke was in Warwick Riv. County, 1643; John Reddock, headright of Francis Hobbs, 20 Aug. 1650, "on N. side of Rappa. River, along a creeke at the foote of a mountaine"; John Redock, "headright of Richard Normansell, 5 June 1666, Stafford County, on N. W. side of Potomack River on the maine run of Pohicke Creeke." She married (II), after 1688, William Edmonds, widower, viz:

. . . Wm. Edmonds aforsd & Joane to Hugh Brent land formerly purchased by Hugh Brent, dec'd, & given unto ye Sd Jane Edmonds daughter of ye Sd Hugh Brent, dec'd, by his will for her natural life & noe longer (L. D. B., 1687-1700, p. 168).

Wm. Edmonds in his will, 1697-1700 names his wife Jane. On 9 April 1688, he sells land to John Wale, & his wife is Lewys. She was the relict of Geo. Wale (d. 1671). From the above data, Joane or Jane (BRENT—Reddock) Edmonds left no heirs "of her naturall body."

3 II Elizabeth, b. circa 1658 in Lancaster County, Va.; m. 11 Feb. 1679, Thomas Bonnison son of Abya (Abia or Eppy—the same person) whose will was written 21 March 1663, and Honoriah Bonnison. Hugh Brent and Thomas Medastard "overseers of my will." Elizabeth and Thomas Bonnison probably died without heirs or returned to England, as I cannot find further data concerning them.

[4] MARTHA² BRENT (Hugh¹), was born in Lancaster County, Va., circa 1659, and had died by 1710, viz:

Ordered that ye deeds acknowledged by Tobias Horton & Jane his wife, to Hugh Brent, be admitted to record (L. O. B., 10 May 1710).

Descendants of Hugh Brent

She married 10 Sept. 1673, Tobias Horton, son of Tobias (Sr.) and Elizabeth Taylor, relict of John Taylor (d. 1653) "Ancient Planter." Toby Horton, Sr., came to Isle of Wight County, Va., 28 May 1638, as one of the headrights of Sarah Cloyden, Widdowe (Nugent, p. 89). He was in Lancaster County, 1 Feb. 1653:

. . . betwixt two maine creeks issuing out of Fleetes Bay next to land of John Taylor, dec'd, bounding S. W. upon one of the creeks dividing this from land of Eppy Bonison . . . & bounding N. E. upon the one towards the Indian Towne (Nugent, p. 289).

Tobias Horton (Sr.), 600 acs. in Northumberland County, 18 March 1662. Upon the N. part of Fleetes Bay, about a half mile up Haddawaies Creeke, granted to Thomas Humphries 1 Sept. 1654, and assigned to sd. Horton (Nugent, p. 437).

Tobias Horton (Sr.), 1200 acs. in Lancaster County, 16 June 1662 (By Francis Moryson). Between Tabb Creek and Nanty poyson Creek, issuing out of Fleetes Bay . . . for transportation of 24 persons . . . [among whom was John Coane (Nugent, p. 437).]

Tobias Horton (Sr.), 500 acs. Lancaster County, 29 Nov. 1652. 200 acs. part upon the Southermost side of Fleets Bay, abutting N. upon a creek dividing this and land of Hump. Tabb and Easterly upon the bay. The remainder upon the head of the aforsd. creek. Trans. of 10 persons (Nugent, p. 263).

John Taylor. In the Swan, 1610. 'Of Newport News, Yeoman and Ancient Planter,' patent 10 Sept. 1624 . . . 'In Court 28 Nov. 1633 . . . his whole dividint . . . granted him to take it up where hee shall find convenient.' In J C G C, p. 73, is found deposition of a John Taylor, aged 37, date 23 June 1625 (Nugent, p. xxx). Tobyas Horton (Sr.), was probably a 'practitioner of Physicke,' viz: 'Whereas Tobyas Horton hath impleaded Walter fleming for a debt of 300 pds. of tobacoe in casque being for ye Cure of a soare leg and whereas by oath it appears that ye sd tobacoe is not due till ye sd Cure be accomplished wch being not yet performed ye Court hath annihilated ye sd Acct and judged ye sd bill Cancelled and voyd.' (L. D. B., 1652-1657, p. 171.) Walter Fleming died shortly afterwards, whether from the treatment or the soare leg—the records are not

[5] HUGH² BRENT (Hugh¹), was born in Lancaster County, Va., circa 1660, and he died there, intestate, between 15 March 1715 (old style) and 14 June 1716, viz:

Hugh Brent Gent being arrested to this Court for ye Sum of 18524 pounds of tobacco att ye Suit of Robt. Carter Esq. and Thomas Carter Gent Church Wardens of Christ Church P'sh and he not appearing order is therefore granted agt the Sheriffe upon whose peticon attachmt is awarded agt ye sd Brent returnable to next Court (L. O. B., March 15, 1716, p. 133). . . . The Suit Inter Robt. Carter Esq. and Thomas Carter, Gent, Church Wardens of Christ Church Parish is dismt the deft mortus Est. (L. O. B., 14 June 1716, p. 147).

From the above notes it would appear that Hugh Brent was short in his accounts. However, such was not the case. The records show that on 9 May 1711, he was to receive the tithables "Between Coll Carters mill and Mr. Jacksons mill run," and also from his will, that he was sick for some time before his death, viz: the gifts to the people who attended him, and then the suit he brought against Jno Cooke, 11 May 1715, viz:

The Suit Inter Hugh Brent Gent and Jno Cooke is Continued ye plt attoe: being sick.

Descendants of Hugh Brent

I have not been able to find the surname of Hugh Brent's wife. She is not named in any of his transactions except as shown in the following:

This indenture made this 20th day of July in the year of our Lord 1682 between Hugh Brent and Katherine his wife, Planter, of the County of Lancaster on the one part, witnesseth that the sd Hugh Brent and Katherine his wife for and in consideration of a man servant and Six pounds Sterling in hand, the receipt thereof they do hereby acknowledge and of every part and parsell thereof doe hereby remitt and discharge to the sd John Norris, his heirs, and assigns, all that therein parsell of Land lying in the County of Lancaster, scituated and being on the S. side of the sd Indian Creeke on a point . . . Corotoman Point . . . bounded in the land of Tobyas Horton containing 100 A., mentioned in a paton bearing date of 8th of May 1680, first pattented by Hugh Brent and Tobias Horton . . . (L. O. B., 6, p. 75).

In 1709, Hugh Brent and Katherine Brent are witnesses to the will of Capt. John Swann. No family connexion is mentioned. Hugh Bent and Geo. Brent, sons of the above, were appraisers of the estate of John Swan, Gent., 8 Nov. 1721, and on 14 March 1721:

Ordered that Sarah Swan pay Hugh Brent for having attended one day, as witness for her.

Among the items listed in the inventory of Hugh Brent, dec'd taken 25 Oct. 1716 is this:

To 1 psell of Woman's old Cloathes @ 2£s., which undoubtedly shows that his wife preceded him to the grave.

Hugh Brent was an active man among the citizens of Lancaster County as the following notes from the Order Books show. Besides appearing in numerous suits, sometimes as plaintiff and at other times as defendant, he seems to have been both a member of His Majesty's Court of Justices and High Sheriffe at one and the same time.

He was appointed constable for Lancaster County in 1691. On 12 May 1703, he is appointed Surveyor:

Ordered that Mr. Hugh Brent be Surveyor of the highway from Capt. Swans to ye Road and thence from

§ Some Allied Families

Mr. Jacksons mill to Coll Carters mill . . . 13 Sept. 1705: Mr. Hugh Brent Surveyor of ye Highway from the old mill to Coll Carters Mill and from his own houle up ye necke to ye maine Roade.

Hugh Brent was appointed one of His Majesty's Justices for Lancaster County 10 May 1710:

Mr. Hugh Brent being likewise desired by the Court to take ye oath of a Justice answered he refused it for he thought him selfe not fitt to be a Judge of ye Law that did not know ye Law.

He must have read up on the law during the next two months, for on 12 July 1710, Att this Court ye Oathes appointed by Act of Parliamt of ye oathes of Allegiance and Supremacy is admitted to Mr. Hugh Brent, one of his Majts Justices for ye sd County together with ye oath of abjuration and Teft and ye oath of a Justice.

Hugh Brent was sheriff of Lancaster County 10 April 1712, viz:

Att this Court it is ordered that Mr. Richard Chichester Mr. Rowland Lawson and Mr. Hugh Brent be Recommended to the Honourable Governor as persons fitt and able to have and Execute the office of Sheriffe of this County . . .

11 Dec. 1712: The County of Lancaster Being indebted in the Sum of 20185 pounds of Tobacoe Doe order that a Levie of 19½ pounds of tobacoe be Collected by Hugh Brent Gent Sheriffe of this County of and from Every Tithable person in this County and that he pay the same to ye several Creditors here under written . . .

13 May 1713: Att this Court the Othes appointed by act of Afsembly instead of the oathes of alegiance and Supremacy ye Oath of Abjuration and Oath of a Sheriffe was admitted to Hugh Brent Gent and the Teft by him subscribed.

Hugh Brent seems to have held these two positions concurrently or intermittently. He is "present" as Justice from 9 August 1710 to 12 Oct. 1715. He is "present" as Sheriffe from 13 Jan. 1713/4 to June 1714, and up to the time of his death, as the Lancaster County order books show on 14 June 1716:

Descendants of Hugh Brent

the deft mortus Est. (is dead).

Hugh Brent was a member of the Lancaster County militia, "Foot Service," in 1687, viz:

Robt. Mitchell, Jno. Swann, Wm. Mitchell, John Sharp, John Flowers, Christopher Kirk, Thos. Carter, Will King, Jno. Redork, T'bias Horton, HUGH BRENT, Charles Kirby, Jno. Coane Jnr.

Since Hugh Brent died intestate, the following deeds and orders show some, and I believe all of his children who attained their majority.

At a Court held for Lancaster County the 9th day of Jan'y Anno Dom 1716 this Inventory was Exhibited upon oath by Hugh Brent Admn., and is ordered to be recorded and is recorded.

Wm. Dale, Clk Cur.

Children:

- + 11 I Hugh, b. —; d. Lancaster County, Va., 1750; m. (I), 1706, Ellinor Haines, dau. of James Haines (w. 1711/2) and Elizabeth Haines; m. (II), 30 Sept. 1726, Elizabeth Morris, dau. of William Morris and — Wale, dau. of George Wale.
- + 12 II William, b. —; d. Lancaster County, Va., 1740; m. (I), cir. 1708, Sarah Fleet, dau. of Capt. Henry² Fleet (Henry¹), a family long prominent in both Maryland and Virginia before 1700. Sarah (Fleet) Brent, d. before 1717; m. (II), 7 Jan. 1723/4, Margaret Haynes; m. (III), 9 Aug. 1734, Letitia Wale.
- + 13 III George, b. —; d. Lancaster County, Va., 1748; m. circa 1715, Judith Pursell.

Descendants of Hugh Brent

+ 15 v Mary, b. —; d. —; m. 10 Aug. 1724, James Carter, widower, son of Capt. Thomas Carter and his wife Catherine Dale, daughter of Edward Dale and his wife Diana.

[11] HUGH³ BRENT (Hugh², Hugh¹), was born in Lancaster County, Va., circa 1680, and died there; his will was written 26 Oct. 1748, and probated 11 May 1750. He married (I), 1706, Ellinor Haines, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Coane?) Haines (see deed below). He married (II) ,30 Sept. 1726, Elizabeth Morris, daughter of William Morris and — Wale, daughter of George Wale, a large landowner in both Maryland and Virginia, and his wife Mary Jones, daughter of Robert Jones and his wife Martha Llewellyn, daughter of Daniel Llewellyn, Burgess of Charles Cittie County, 1642-1644 (Boddie).

Hugh Brent, being the eldest son, inherited all of his father's estate and was a man of prominence in Lancaster County. His attachment to his next younger brother, William, is as striking as is his total neglect of his other two brothers, George and Charles, when his deeds of gift are studied. In the long drawn out suit of Schoefield vs. Brent, it would appear that William Brent had named a son "HUGH"; however, no son by this name appears in his will.

Hugh Brent is mentioned frequently as a grand juryman 1717-1725. He paid 6 tithes, 1717, 7 in 1718, and 8 in 1719. He appraised the estates of George Wale, George Flowers, Jacob Carroll, Mark Atkins (who was a "runaway servant" of his father's), Catherine Lawson, John Swan, Lee Flower, Samuel Holloway, and others; he was trustee of the estate of Eppa Lawson, all before 1726.

On 12 April 1727 (Old Style), he was made a Justice of the Peace, and also took the Oath of Justice for Lancaster County, which position he held unto his death in 1750.

Bond from Hugh Brent, Gent., and Thomas Edwards to His Majesty's Justices (L. O. B., 1721-1729, p. 257).

Hugh Brent was a Vestryman of Christ Church Parish, and also church warden:

Hugh Brent, Gent., is appointed to take a list of tithes in the middle precinct of Christ Church Parish (Ibid., 8 May 1728, p. 269) . . . Hugh Brent, Gent., church warden of Christ Church Parish, plaintiff, and Elias Edmonds, Jr., defendant (12 June 1734).

§ Some Allied Families

Hugh Brent was Sheriff of Lancaster County:

Hugh Brent, Gent., produced a commission from the Governor appointing him Sheriffe of this County . . . and he took Oathe (L. O. B., 1729-1740, p. 112). Hugh Brent, Gent., took the Oath of Oyer and Terminer, 9 Feb. 1736 (Ibid., p. 159). The Sheriff of a county was regarded as the judge of the County Courts, as they now exist; he was an officer in the Church of England, and the laws of the Church were the laws of the land.

Hugh Brent, the immigrant, and his son Hugh, from the records as found in the counties searched, were most indifferent as to the other early settlers by the name of Brent. The only recorded data which I have found that shows any connexion between this family and any other of the same name is this:

In ye Suite in Chancery depending in this Court between Jno Mahallam Extr of ye last will and testament of ANN BRENT dec'd, complainant and HUGH BRENT defendant for money (?) of certain Henry Offley, in the hands of the sd deft. Upon hearing the whole matter the Court do declare That the sd HUGH BRENT do pay unto the sd Jno Mahallam the Sum of one pound eleven Shillings and Six pence being what ye Sd Defend is indebted unto the sd Henry Offley (L. O. B., 1717-1721, p. 196—8 May 1717).

Ann Brent is named in the Northumberland records as relict of Rober Brent, viz—

Account of Ann Brent relict of Robert Brent vs. William Wood (N. C. O., p. 87—1699). She sues Alexander Swan prior to this, in 1697, when she is admr. of Robert Brent's estate.

Benjamin Wale, in his will, written 26 March 1709, names wife, Ann, and "wife's son John Mahallam," among others. Why she is "named" Ann Brent if she had married Benj. Wale before 1709, is hard to understand. Early settlers in the colonies changed their names easily, and the changes were not always recorded in the Order Books, but probably were in the Church Parish Registers. As the Lancaster Parish Registers appear to be lost, there is no way to check this data. I cannot find anything in the Lancaster records to show a relationship between the above Robert and his wife Ann Brent, and Hugh Brent.

Elizabeth Brent, the second wife of Hugh, died; her will was written 24 Nov. 1762, and probated 19 July 1770.

Elizabeth Haynes gives to daughter Eleanor Brent and husband Hugh Brent, and their son Morrice Brent, slaves, 9 April 1713 (L. D. B. 9, p. 485). Instead of Elizabeth Haynes being a "Coane," she might have been a "Morris," before her marriage to James Haynes.

James Brent, planter, sells to Thomas James, 235 Acs. of land, 13 July 1744. This is the same tract of land "which in 1669 was granted by patent to John Coane, and afterwards fell into the possession of James Haynes who by his last will and testament bearing Date the first Day of January 1711/2 . . . gave and bequeathed the sd Land unto his grandson Haynes Brent son of Hugh Brent Gent. . . . and the sd Haynes Brent dying without issue, the same descended to his brother, James Brent one of the parties to these presents . . ." (L. D. B. 14, p. 24).

Know all men by these presents, that I Hugh Brent of the Parish of Christ Church in Lancaster County and Colony of Virginia for and in consideration of the Naturall Good Will and Affection I have and do bear unto my Sons and Daughters hereafter mentioned, Have given and by these presents give unto my Sd Children as followeth, To my Son William Brent my negro man named Tom, To my Son Hugh Brent my negro woman named Dinah with her increase, to my Son John Brent my Negro Woman Fillis and her increase, to my Daughter Katherine Brent my Negro Girle Lucy and her increase, to my Daughter Elizabeth Brent my Negro Girle Judy and her increase, And also give my Negro Woman Sue and her future Increase to be divided between my said Daughters. The aforsd Negroes to be delivered to my Sd children immediately after my decease, And in case of the death of either of my Sons his Brother or Brothers before named to enjoy his part, and in case of the death of either of my Daughters the Survivor to enjoy the whole Estate herein given to such Daughter. IN WITNESS whereof I

Hugh Brent was making a "peace offering" to the children by his first wife, preparatory to his second marriage, which took place seventeen days later.

Hugh Brent gives land to his son James Brent and wife Catherine, 8 Nov. 1738 (L. D. B. 13, p. 145).

The will of Hugh Brent, which follows, separates the children of the "whole blood" in a manner that leaves no doubt as to the issue by his two wives.

Item—I give to my good friend Robert Edwards son of Mr. Thos. Edwards, one of my best sows and pigges.

Item—I do nominate and appoint my afor'd wife and my sons Nicholas and Maurice whole and sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament and I do revoke all other Wills by me heretofore made. ry to search the records for the Carter obituaries, as I would have had too many deductions to work out. In Miller's History of the Carter Family, she is listed as a "spinster" when she married James Carter, widower, 10 Aug. 1724. This marriage was made in Lancaster County, but fortunately they soon moved to Stafford where the watchful eye of Mr. Moncure checked on the births and deaths and marriages most diligently—the whites and blacks with equal patience.

"James Carter, an honest good man, died Oct. 24th, 1743." He was the 8th son of Capt. Thomas Carter and his wife Catherine Dale, dau. of Edward and his wife Diana Dale, and was born at "Barford" Lancaster County, Va., on Xmas Day 1684, "it being a Thursday, at 2 in ye Morn^g." James Carter m. (1), 3 Oct. 1715, Hannah Neale, who d. 9 Oct. 1722. Mr. Miller, in his history states that James Carter was one of the largest landowners in Stafford County.

Mary (Brent) Carter outlived her husband. She was one of witnesses to her brother Charles Brent's will 1756, and Charles Brent is one of Exors. to James Carter's will.

William Doggett, in his will 1764, names Sarah Doggett as one of his "five youngest daughters." On the flyleaf of an old account book brought up from Lancaster County which came into my possession at the death of my grandfather, I found the name Sarah Brent written in many places, and having heard from my father's sisters that her family name was Doggett, I searched through all of the Doggett wills before I was finally convinced that I had the right Sarah. He was a minor when his father made his will. John King died between 2 March and 19 June, 1752, stating in his will that his wife as Exor. was "to bring up his children in a Christian manner Provided she behave in a Christian manner." She "proved" her Christianity by marrying her cousin William Brent(37) 2 May 1753. Judith Brent died before 1779, as this William married Mary Parham widow, that year, in Sussex County, Va.

[50] CHARLES⁴ BRENT (Charles³, Hugh², Hugh¹), was born in Overwharton Parish, Stafford County, Va., 11 June 1735, and died in Frederick County, Va., 11 April 1822. He married 1761, Anna Gunnell, daughter of Henry and Catherine Gunnell of Prince William County, Va. Charles Brent, or his son Charles, was a member of the House of Delegates 1810-11 (Morton). His will is not recorded in Frederick County.

Children:*

He was appointed a lieutenant of militia 51st. Inf. Reg., 16th Brigade and 3rd Div., Va. Militia, 13 Jan. 1814.
- 115 II George, m. 10 Dec. 1812, Susan Anderson (Fr. M. B.).

*The first six children are named in Anna Brent's will. The other seven are as printed in The Lookout of Chattanooga, Tenn., Feb. 1917. The first six children were included in this printed data, and not being able to establish the source of the other seven, I am using the data as printed.

The marriages of the first six children as printed in The Lookout agree with the Frederick County bonds, so it is probable that the names mentioned in the mother's will were the youngest, and also that the others had gone to "the Western Country."

without listing their names. Stokeley Brent(70), names John, Newton, Catherine, and Mary Stamps; Douglas Register gives only Catherine and James. It is also possible that this family went to Kentucky with the Curds.

- 148 II James, b. 6 Jan. 1760 (D. Reg.).

[67] LUCY⁶ BRENT (James⁴, Hugh³, Hugh², Hugh¹), was born in Lancaster County, Va., circa 1734, and died in Mercer County, Ky. She married in Lancaster County, Va., 7 April 1758, John Curd (John², Edward¹), of Goochland County, Va., the match, in all probability, having been made by Capt. William Stamps who married her sister eight years earlier, as he is on the bond. John Curd was born circa 1726, in Henrico County, Va., and died before 1819, in Mercer County, Ky.

Lucy (Brent) Curd seems to have been worshipped by all of the Kentucky Curds, looked upon as a sort of Godmother, and for that reason the name Brent has been given not only to all of her direct descendants, but also to the Curds who carried no Brent blood.

The children of Lucy Brent and John Curd were born in Goochland County (formed from Henrico 1727), and were registered by the Rev. William Douglas in the register of St. James Northam Parish Church, of which John Curd was Vestryman; the name of Merryman B. Curd, being the only exception. He must have been born during the journey, or shortly after the arrival in Kentucky.

John Curd moved with his family to Kentucky 1780, settling on the south bank of the Kentucky River, at the mouth of Dix River, in what was first Lincoln County, but was later cut off to form Mercer County. Here he established a public ferry authorized by law, being one of eight so authorized in Kentucky by the Virginia Assembly. This ferry became the gateway to the settlement at Harrodsburg, and at the present writing, a ferry is still in operation at this point. The road from the ferry to Harrodsburg, and on to Lexington, was known as "Curd's Road," and was so called until the Harrodsburg turnpike was built. He took up large grants of land in Jefferson, Fayette and Lincoln Counties, the first three counties to be formed out of the County of Kentucky. All of his children and those of his brother Joseph (with one exception) eventually settled in Central Kentucky and are the ancestors of a large part of the Kentuckians bearing the name Curd. It is said that he was an intimate friend of both Daniel Boone and Governor Patrick Henry and that under the Governor's direction he served many important missions in the Kentucky section of Virginia. For this work he was granted 1650 acres of land in Kentucky by Gov. Patrick Henry, and 600, by the Virginia Legislature.

There were three John Curds living in Goochland County, Va. at the beginning of the Revolution and writers frequently confuse the three and their military service in the Revolution. The elder John son of John² Curd and his wife Elizabeth Price removed from Virginia to Kentucky during the progress of the Revolution. There does not seem to be any record of his having served in the Continental army prior to his removal to Kentucky where he was a member of the Lincoln County militia and saw service under at least three different captains. In company of Capt. John Martin under command of Col. Stephen Trigg, April 21 to May 23, 1781, 33 days. In company of Capt. Samuel Scott, under command of Col. Benjamin Logan, Feb. 22 to March 22, 1782, 29 days. In company of Capt. John Smith under command of Col. Benjamin Logan, Oct. 22 to Nov. 23, 1782, 33 days. (Pay rolls on file Va. state Library). The second John was son of Edward³ Curd and his wife Mary Morris. He was captain of militia 1778-1781 (Heitman, p. 181) and was Colonel of the Goochland militia following the Revolution. The third John was son of John³ Curd and his wife Lucy Brent. He enlisted as private in Continental Army 1776 and was appointed Major of the Goochland militia May 1780.

[161-a] MERRYMAN⁶ B. CURD (BRENT—Lucy⁵, James⁴, Hugh³, Hugh², Hugh¹,—CURD, John³, John², Edward¹), was born (either in Goochland County, Va., or just after the arrival of his parents in Kentucky), 12 May 1780. He died in Trimble County, Ky. 2 Oct. 1841. He married in Fayette County, Ky., 12 April 1804, Polly Kay, born 11 April 1780, and died in Crawford County, Illinois, 20 March 1858. She was the daughter of John and Mary Kay of Fayette County, Ky. Merryman Curd's marriage is recorded in both Fayette and Jessamine Counties, Ky. Because he is not listed in the Douglas Register, I am giving the following references to prove that he was a son of John and Lucy Brent Curd.

(B. "H," p. 27, Jessamine County, Ky.) 12 July 1823
 . . . "whereas I, Merriman B. Curd of Jessamine County State of Kentucky have given unto my children all of my property to wit, thirteen negro slaves, all of my tract of land whereon I now live containing 350 acres, it being a part of John Curds 820 acre survey above the mouth of Dick's River and adjoining Bradshaw, Curds etc. . . . all of my stock of horses, cows, sheep . . . household goods, also all of my crop now on the plantation . . . also what is willed to me and my wife Polly by John Kay. . . . The said children by their guardians Robert Kay, William A. Leavey and Richard A. Curd of Fayette County, John Green of Lincoln County, and Willis Curd and Samuel H. Woodson of Jessamine County, and James Birney, Sr. of Mercer County, do agree to pay all just debts of their father M. B. Curd, take the property above mentioned and maintain their father and mother jenteely, allow them the same and every (comfort) they formerly enjoyed. As witness my hand the 12th day of July 1823. Test. Edward Bradshaw, Benjamin Bradshaw, Filed 29 Feb. 1824."

(B. "H," p. 34, 22 March 1824) . . . "Merryman B. Curd and wife Polly to Benjamin Bradshaw 333 acres . . . $3,333.00 . . . adjoining lands of Newton Curd deceased, upon which the said Merryman B. Curd at present resides." Test—Willis Curd, C. R. Lewis, John Curd, J. Higbee Jr.

Our next record of Merryman B. Curd is from the Deed Books of Oldham County, Ky. (B. "C," p. 497, 29 Feb. 1836).

Between Robert Wickliffe of Lexington, Ky., on the one part and John Curd and William T. Curd of the other part, witnesseth: that whereas the said Robert Wickliffe did agree to convey to Merryman B. Curd or his order a certain tract of land situated in the county of Oldham on the Ohio River and the said Merryman B. Curd has by his order dated the 5th day of Feb. 1836 ordered and requested said Wickliffe to convey to the said John Curd and William T. Curd 319 acres, parcel of the original tract, in consideration of the premises and the further consideration of four dollars per acre heretofore paid to said Wickliffe by the said Merryman B. Curd, said Wickliffe conveys to John and William T. Curd. . . .

Our fourth record of Merryman B. Curd is in Trimble County, Ky., 6 Jan. 1834, when he pays a surveyor named Strother for having made a survey of lands on the Ohio River belonging to Robert Wickliffe which Merryman had evidently proposed purchasing from said Wickliffe. Then, D. B. "A," p. 8, 13 March 1837, Robert Wickliffe of Lexington, Ky., deeds land to Samuel Trotter Curd and Augustine Lewis Curd, of the County of Trimble, and for description of this land, refers to the plat made by Strother for Merryman B. Curd. 5 Sept. 1842; Augustine L. Curd sells his part of this land to Evan M. Garrett of Trimble County, and on 1 March 1843, Samuel Trotter Curd sells his share to the same Garrett. In book "B," p. 79, 17 Oct. 1843, is the following: Samuel T. Curd and Augustine L. Curd, of Trimble County, Ky., to Milburn Abbott of Bethlehem in the State of Indiana, for one dollar in hand paid and for the consideration that said Abbott, as the attorney in fact of John Hawkins of Jessamine County, Ky., has compromised a claim of said Hawkins against said Curds.

These families eventually left Trimble and Oldham Counties, some going to Missouri, others to Indiana and Illinois. The fact that Merryman B. Curd owned one third of the John Curd 820 acre tract, and that the other two thirds was owned by Newton, son of John, and by William Bradshaw and his wife Catherine Curd, son-in-law and daughter of John Curd, together with the fact that Merryman named his first son JOHN, and the further fact that when he left Jessamine County he settled in Oldham County, alongside the family of his brother Woodford, and that the name Merryman, through the marriage of Susannah Merryman, daughter of Richard Merryman, to William Payne, and the son by this marriage, Merryman Payne's marriage with Catherine Brent, leads one to believe that he must have been a son of John Curd of Dix River. The reason his birth was not registered in the Douglas Register, as were those of the other children, is probably due to the fact that his family moved to Kentucky about the time of his birth. The following list of children of Merryman B. Curd has been sent by Mr. R. A. Curd, of Indianapolis, Ind., and is taken from the family bible.

EXCURSUS—BERNARD

1 John Bernard, b. circa 1700, in England; came to Maryland circa 1720; married a Miss Abney, and afterwards settled on the Rivanna River in Albemarle County (later Fluvanna), Va. He had—

2 John Bernard, b. 16 Nov. 1736; d. 15 Jan. 1824; m. 6 March 1760, Elizabeth Burnett, daughter of John and Sarah Burnett. She was born 4 April 1744; died 30 Aug. 1822, in Albemarle County. He had among others—

3 Major Allen Bernard, b. 29 Jan. 1763; d. 4 July 1834; m. 3 May 1787, Ann Mitchell, who was b. 28 Oct. 1764; d. 1 April 1851. At the time of his marriage he was merchandising in Goochland County. Shortly after this date he moved to Richmond, where he ran a public house (tavern) until 1792, when he moved to the county of Fluvanna, having purchased 1640 acres on the south side of the Rivanna Riv. and Adrien's Creek, including the site of the dwelling in which he was born and opposite the property of the Payne family upon whose premises reposed the remains of his grandfather John Bernard and wife. He moved to Rockfish Gap (west of the now town of Afton) 1820 (see note in L. H. Brent's diary), and later settled on a farm near Greenfield in Nelson County, where he finished his mortal career. Maj. Allen Bernard was a member of the legislature from either Fluvanna or Goochland Counties, and in all probability, an officer in the militia in the War of 1812. He had, among others—

4 Mary Byron Bernard, the second child, b. 31 Dec. 1789; m. (I) 19 Dec. 1807, Samuel Ferguson, who d. 12 July 1827; she m. (II) 5 Dec. 1837, Joel Smith of Nelson County, Va.; she died 1863-4. She had among others—

5 Jesse Bernard Ferguson, b. 27 Feb. 1827; d. 16 July 1909;

6 Evaline Jane, b. 27 Feb. 1863; m. 19 Jan. 1887, William Grayson Moran, b. 1 Dec. 1863; d. 6 Sept. 1926, at "Beverly Manor," in Augusta County. He was manager of the farm and orchard at Miller's School for twenty-five years, and an authority on orchard cultivation and management in the apple belt of Virginia.

EXCURSUS—SAVAGE

Margaret Savage, daughter of William Savage and his wife Elizabeth, married Samuel Bunting, with her father's consent, in Northampton County, Va., 9 Dec. 1820. Her father, William Savage, was born 9 Nov., "in the Yeare of our Lord" 1783, the son of Abel Savage and his second wife, Nancy James. (Abel Savage married (1) Sheba Gunter, daughter of Joseph Gunter, by 1758). William Savage was dead by 27 Nov. 1821, as the following Land Causes will show:

1 JOHN SAVAGE (OF ABEL) VS. (PARTITION SUIT)

William Savage (of Abel) and Abel Savage (of Abel). That one Abel Savage, father of the sd John, William and Abel, was upon 28 Jan. 1793, seized (of certain lands) . . . $\frac{1}{2}$ of which he left to William and the other $\frac{1}{2}$ to John Savage . . . that at the death of the sd Abel Savage the elder, he left the following children, then born: the sd John and William, and also Jacob, Nancy and Sally Savage, and grandchild Abel, son of his dec'd son Parker Savage, also a widow, to wit: Nancy Savage, who at the time of the death of the testator, was enciente of a child which was born after the death of the testator, to wit: the sd Abel, the defendant, which Abel being unprovided for . . . received share for share with the other children (Accomack Land Causes, 29 Aug. 1803). Nancy Savage, 2nd wife of Abel Savage (w. 1794), was daughter of — James, and sister of Hetty Mason, wife of Teackle Mason; Elizabeth Warner, wife of Geo. Warner, Jr.; of David James . . . and that Mary Ann and Sally C. Savage are the only children of Nancy Savage, dec'd., who was a sister of the whole blood to the sd Hetty Mason (Accomack Land Causes, 27 Nov. 1821).

Descendants of Hugh Brent

Family tradition "shows" that the above Abel who married secondly, Nancy James, was the son of one Major Savage. The only Major Savage I can find left no will. He married Peggy daughter of Abel Roberts, of Accomack County. Nor is a Major named in the many other Savage wills.

The Savage Family is the oldest family in America surviving the colonization of Virginia. Ensign Thomas Savage came to the Easterne Shoare, cir. 1620, and according to John Pory, an English visitor to the Colonies in 1624:

This Thomas Savage, it is sixteen years since he went to Virginia, being a boy, he was left with Powhatan for Namontacke, to learn the language, and as the Author Affirmith, with much honestie and good success hath served the publike without any publike recompence, yet had an arrow shot through his body in their service.

Ensign Thomas Savage, an "Ancient Planter," arrived in Virginia on the John and Francis", 1607. He was born 1595, and died by 1635. He married Hannah Tyng, who arrived in Virginia 1621, aboard the Seaflower. They had at least Capt. John Savage, who was a large landowner, receiving in 1664, one grant of 6,000 acres in Northampton County. Mrs. Hannah Savage, of "Savage's Choice," married (11) Daniell Cugley 1635.

EXCURSUS—BUNTING

The earliest data on this family comes from the "Accomack Tithables," and concerns one William Bunting, who in 1680, pays 2 tithes. He continues on the list until 1695, and then disappears. Whether he is the progenitor of this family, this compiler does not know. The Buntings might have come down from Delaware or Pennsylvania. There was a Solomon Bunting, who from "his declaration," was a soldier in the Rev. War, Capt. John Blair's Company, and in 1820, he is 78 years old, which would place his date of birth at 1742.

Jonathan Bunting died 1763/4, leaving a wife, Polly, and several children. Solomon Bunting died 1787, leaving wife Peggy, and son William "beyond the seas for past four years . . . if he has son by name Solomon, if not to Solomon and his heir by name of Solomon, if not to son Holloway and his heir by name Solomon, if not to son Jonathan and his heir by name Solomon." In the order of probate, Holloway qualified, so he evidently produced the first Solomon! Holloway Bunting died Jan. 1808. He married (I) 12 May 1787, Prescilla Turner, daughter of John Furbush Turner; he married (II) 10 July 1797, Sally White. From his will he had three children by each marriage.

Samuel Bunting, listed in his will as among the three older children, is written in his Bible as being the son of Hollwy and Sally Bunting, and his date of birth, 2 Aug. 1798. He died 7 April 1847. He married 9 Dec. 1820 Margaret, with the consent of her father William Savage. She was born 5 Oct. 1807, and died 1 June 1846. There were seven sons and two daughters. George Solomon Bunting, the third son, was born 4 Jan. 1829, and died 20 April 1917, at "Landale," Norfolk County, Va. He married three times. His second wife was Harriett Jordan, a sister of his first wife. By this second marriage he had Lelia Bunting, who married Robert Craig Brent (305).

[310] LAFAYETTE⁷ BRENT (Hugh⁶, George⁵, Thomas⁴, George³, Hugh², Hugh¹), was born 11 Jan. 1816 at "Brenton," in Fauquier County, Va., and died there 1895. He married 17 Feb. 1840, Juliet P. Johnson, daughter of Amos Johnson of "Clover Hill" and his wife Sarah Nutt, who was the daughter of Richard Nutt of Northumberland County, and his wife Elizabeth Hathaway of Lancaster County, Va. Juliet Brent died "Thursday June 13th, about 10 o'clock in the evening, 1889."

Captn,

If anything can be done in the case of the two Brents, who have recently lost a brother in action with the enemy, I would be placed under obligation. The family is in great distress, especially the mother. The horses of both the surviving sons have been recently shot, and it will take some little time to replace them. They desire to remain only a few days at home. It is unnecessary for me to state their character as soldiers. The Confederacy has none superior.

Very resptly

That he had lost an arm . . . he also says that he met a man in Mexico who called himself John James Robinson, who was Nick Carter, Chenooni, Mexico (from Wm. A. Brent notes).

ALLIED FAMILIES

THE CURD* FAMILY

[1] EDWARD CURD, immigrant ancestor, probably ancestor of all those named Curd* in America, was in Henrico County, Va. as early as 1704, where on October 2nd of that year he "Purchased of John Woodson for 30£ currency, six hundred acres of land on the north side of the James River, adjoining land formerly James Blairs' and being part of a greater tract granted John Woodson, Jr., by patent dated 23 Oct. 1690" (Valentine Papers). The following year 1705, he was assessed and paid taxes on this six hundred acres (Henrico Quit Rent Rolls, 1705, Va. Historical Mag., Vol. 28, p. 210). Between 1716 and 1725 he received various land grants on the north side of James River in that part of Henrico County that was cut off in 1728 to form Goochland County. There was granted to him 31 Oct. 1716, 531 acres north side James River, west side north branch Beaver Dam Creek (Book, 10, p. 307), 2 Feb. 1724, 1,200 acres north side James River (Book 12, p. 130), 2 Feb. 1724, 341 acres north side James River on Beaver Dam Creek (Book 12, p. 131), 17 Aug. 1725, 400 acres on Beaver Dam Creek (Book 12, p. 238). In the next few years he deeded most of his Goochland County lands to his children. 6 June 1726, he deeds to his son John, for "love and affection," part of the 531 acre tract on Beaver Dam Creek (Henrico Court records), 7 Nov. 1726 he deeds to his daughter Mary McBride land lying on the north side of James River (Henrico Court records), 16 July 1733 he deeds 200 acres in Goochland County to each of his daughters, Mary Richardson and Elizabeth Williams (Goochland County Deeds), 20 Nov. 1733 he deeds 650 acres in Goochland County to his son Richard (Goochland County Deeds). In his will he gives 100 acres in Goochland County to his granddaughter, Jane McBride, and all of his remaining holdings in Goochland to his son Edward. All of his children, Edward excepted, eventually went to Goochland County to live. In the vestry book of the old St. John's Church at Richmond, we find the following records (Kith and Kin, p. 17, Moss, by which with the Vestrymen formerly of this Parish make up the number of twelve who take Oaths and Declarations as Vestrymen."* Oaths signed Edward Curd, first and others. 2 Sept. 1735, "Richard Randolph and Edward Curd, Gent. are appointed to view the Chappell and report what reparation and addition are thereunto wanting." 26 July 1743, "Beverly Randolph takes oath as vestryman in place of Edward Curd, deceased: as chosen 2nd Oct. 1742." Edward Curd died 1742. The Henrico County December Court 1742 appoints John Williamson, Thomas Watkins, Daniel Price and James Young to appraise estate of Edward Curd, deceased. Will dated 4 Feb. 1739/40, proved first Monday in Dec. 1742, names the following: wife Elizabeth Curd, son Edward Curd, son John Curd, son Richard Curd, Mary Mackbride and her son Edward Mackbride, daughter-in-law (step-daughter) Mary Punch, grandson John Curd, granddaughter Jane Mackbride, daughter Mary Richardson, daughter Elizabeth Williams. Names wife Elizabeth and son Edward Curd executors. Edward's will leaves the home plantation and dwelling in Henrico to wife Elizabeth during her life. "Son, Edward to have half of everything during Elizabeth's life, and at her death the whole of said Henrico estate." Son Edward is also given all lands "now possessed of" in Goochland County, excepting 100 acres which goes to granddaughter Jane Mackbride.

The name of Edward's first wife, the mother of his children, is not known; he m. (II) Elizabeth Branch, dau. of Thomas Branch and Elizabeth Archer, widow first of Robert Goode whom she m.

THE DOGGETT FAMILY

[1] BENJAMIN DOGGETT, "Minister," came to Lancaster County, Va. circa 1670, from England. He was the son of William Dogget, of Ipswich, "woolendraper." He was admitted at St. John's College, Cambridge, 27 Jan. 1654/5, received his B.A. 1659, and his M.A. 1662. That same year he was made Curate of Stoke in Suffolk.

Shortly after his arrival in Lancaster County, he was made minister of Christ Church and also St. Mary's White Chapel. From the tone of his will, Benjamin Doggett was very much opposed to the youthful marriages made in the colony, for he makes it very plain to his children that they will be disinherited—his sons, if they marry before 22, and his daughters before 18 years of age.

Benjamin Doggett was born circa 1635, in Ipswich, England, and died in Lancaster County, Va., 1681/2. He married Jane —, who survived him.

Children (DOGGETT):

- + 2 I Benjamin, "eldest son," b. in England; d. in Lancaster County, Va., 1723; m. (I) —; (II), Mary Threlkeld, wid. of Christopher Threlkheld (w. 1711) of Northumberland County.
- + 3 II Richard, b. "in Virginia"; d. 1721, in Lancaster County; m. Elizabeth Bushrod.
- + 4 III William, b. "in Virginia"; d. 1710-16, "by unfortunate accident"; m. Elizabeth (George?).
- 5 IV Jane, "in England, 20 shillings and noe more, because she has been detained from me."
- 6 V Anne, "15,000 pounds of tobaccoe, 6 yg. cows, 6 breeding sowers . . . to be pd by my sons, provided she does not marry before reaching 18 years."

[2] BENJAMIN² DOGGETT (Benjamin¹), was born in England, and died in Christ Church Parish, Lancaster County, 18 Sept. to 13 Nov. 1723. He married twice, but the name of his first wife is not known; his second wife was Mary Threlkeld, widow of Christopher Threlkeld of Northumberland County, whom he married circa 1712, and she survived him. Benjamin Doggett was appointed constable 10 May 1710.

Children, 1st marriage (DOGGETT):

[4] WILLIAM² DOGGETT (Benjamin¹), was born in Virginia, and died in Christ Church Parish, Lancaster County, Va., 1710-1716. He states in his will "by unfortunate accident, being weak of body" (1710), so must have been injured in some manner; however, his will was not probated until 1716. He does not name all of his children, so I am assuming the ones he did name are the youngest. He married Elizabeth (George?), and she survived him.

THE EDMONDS FAMILY

[1] ELYAS EDMONDS, patented 890 acs. lying on N. side of Rappahannock River, in Corotoman Riv., on the Eastermost branch, on the North side thereof, 29 July 1650, for transportation of 18 persons: John Kendall, Nicho. Taylor, John Kesh (or Lesh), Duncom Grant, Rice Thoroughgood, Alice Dawes, Thomas Cuck, Ann Myler, Tho. Hobson, Kat. Geames, John Wakefield, Rich. Embrock, Eliza. Bassaye, Hellen Shore, Eliza. Stretton, Farrar Flinton, Jane his wife, Eliza. Flinton, Math. Harecastle, Hen. Nesfield (the above shows 20 persons, which at 50 acres per head, would mean that he received 1,000 acres).

On 10 Oct. 1652, he received 600 acs. in the same county (Lancaster) for the transportation of 12 persons . . . upon the head of another tract of land lying on the N. side of the Easterne branch of Corotoman Riv . . . — Needham, — Prine, — Dillard, Henry Bray, Eliz. Philips, Thos. Payne, Fra. Morgan, three negroes, Eliz. Perry, Lawrence Dawby, from Abra. Moone (Nugent, p. 259).

Hayden states that Elias Edmonds' will is recorded in Lancaster Estate Book I, p. 207, dated 27 March 1654; there is no such record book listed in Lancaster County, nor can I find the will in other books extant there; and from excerpts of the following letter from Edwin Conway to Toby Smith, clerk, do not believe that Hayden is correct.

From my home at the head of Corotomaon, March the 27th 1654
Hon'd Sir—

Service to you and your wife presented. These are to let you understand that I am by Elias Edmonds his last will and testament sole overseer of his estate and see that his children be not cheated nor defrauded of that estate their father left them yet John Meredith and Walter Heard not giving the Court intelligence thereof as I hear obtained an order for administration of this Estate nor I having not any notice thereof, saying that his (sic?) mother in Law Mrs. Edmonds made no will . . . Now I can prove but the Court is so remoat that I cannot bring witnesses . . . that Mrs. Edmonds made an uncapative will which I know in Law is authentick . . . Meredith his pretence is that I am a Papist and ought not to have the bringing up of the children . . .

This letter continues, and shows that Elias Edmonds left a large estate, that his wife had since died, that the estate was being wasted, and that the children were in a "desperate condition." Mr. Conway was later appointed administrator of the estate, and buys a maidservant for 1,600 pds. of tobaccoe, pays Mr. Forest 340 pds. of tobaccoe and buys stockings, shoes and bodices for the children, without naming them.

From the above data, it would appear that Elias Edmonds married, Frances, the mother-in-law (stepmother) of either Meredith or Heard, most probably Meredith; that she died soon after her husband, Elias, and left minors. More research shows the following:

[1] ELIAS EDMONDS, immigrant to Virginia, before 1650, died in Lancaster County, Va. before 1654. He married Frances, widow of probably a Meredith or Heard; his wife was dead by March 1654; they left the following—

Children (EDMONDS):

- 2 I Thomas, d. u. m., 1677, and left his estate to Elias Edmonds, son of William Edmonds.
- + 3 II William, d. between 26 Jan. 1697 and 12 Feb. 1700; m. (I) 1674, Lewys, relict of George Wale (I. 1674); (II) Jane (Brent) Reddock, 1688.
- 4 III Anne, "orphan of Elias Edmonds," m. 14 Sept. 1664, John Walker (L O B 1655-66, p. 298).

[3] WILLIAM² EDMONDS (Elias¹), was born in Lancaster County, Va. circa 1650, and died there 1700. He married (I) Lewys, relict of George Wale (I. 1674), and she died circa 1688 (see WALE excursus). He married (II) Jane Brent, eldest daughter of Hugh, the immigrant, and relict of John Reddock, circa 1688,

Children (EDMONDS):

- + 5 I Elias, d. 1745, and left issue.
- 6 II William, "to take care of his sister, Lucy."
- 7 III Lucy.

[5] ELIAS³ EDMONDS (William², Elias¹), was born circa 1676 and died between 24 April and 14 Feb. 1745 (old style). He names his children and grandchildren, but no wife; she evidently died before he did. The Est. Div. of his son Robert names two generations, and for this reason is the source of the fourth and fifth generations of this family.

Henry Fleet came to Virginia as early as 1623 as he was one of the 26 men who, under Henry Spelman, in that year, went to trade with the Anacostan Indians on the Potomac, and was captured and taken to their dwelling place at a spot near the present Washington Monument. During four years of captivity he became thoroughly acquainted with the language and customs of the Indians, and thus was subsequently of great usefulness to the colonists as an interpreter. Ransomed in 1627, he went to England, and with merchants in London, engaged in the India trade. Lord Baltimore on 18 June 1644, commissioned him with the power of a Captain General to visit with the Susquehannan Indians and make a treaty of peace.

The earliest mention of Henry Fleete in the Virginia Land Office records is in a patent to one Thomas Graves, Ancient Planter. This Graves was granted a patent of 200 acres on the East side of the Shoare of the bay of Chesepeicke butting Southly on land of Capt. Henry Fleete, extending Northly along the water side, and Westly on the bay . . . 14 March 1628. Before 1634, Henry Fleete had patented land in Northampton County (Accomack), as he had sold same to one Jonathan Gylls, who on 20 Sept. 1634, willed this land to his daughter. The total land granted Capt. Henry Fleete before 1660 was over 6,000 acres.

In 1642, the Virginia Assembly gave Henry Fleete the privilege for 14 years of making discoveries westward and southward, with all profits thereof, extending the privilege in 1653 for fourteen years more. In 1645/6, Virginia employed him against the Indians at 15,000 pounds of tobacco. He wrote a "Brief Journal of a Voyage made in the Bark Virginia, to Virginia and other parts of the Continent of America."

also that in the musters of the inhabitants in Virginia 1723/4, that at Capt. On 29 Nov. 1658, Mr. George Wale patts 300 acs. neere the Glade above Wiccocommoccoe Indian Towne, adjoining S. side of land of John Cossens and Thomas Steed and parallel to tract assigned sd Wale by Gervas Dodson, for transportation of six persons . . . Wale and it appearing that the same was in the province of Maryland sold in Tobaccocoe by the Sd Wm. George Wale died intestate 1674; his brother, Edward, who was one of the headrights of Col. Edmund Scarborough of Accomack County, 1664, proved his inventory.

George Wale was descended from Sir Thomas Wale, who was made a Knight of the Order of the Garter in the first creation by Edward III, 1340. He married Lewys —, who after his death married William Edmonds. She died 1688.

[2] GEORGE² WALE (George¹), was born in either the Province of Maryland or Lancaster County, Va., circa 1650, and died in Lancaster County, 1720, intestate. He m. (I) Mary Jones, daughter of Robert and Martha (Llewellyn) Jones; (II) Thomasine —, who m. (II) 1721, John Bond. He was named in more suits during his lifetime than any one man in Lancaster: he was plaintiff in twenty suits, and defendant in fourteen, which might imply that he held some office in connexion with the inspection of Tobacco, but the Orders do not show this. He was under-sheriff 9 April 1712. He was probably church warden of St. Mary's White Chapels Parish with Richard Flint 1717, as they are sued for 32,000 pound of tobacco by James Ball and Rawleigh Chinn, late Church Wardens. George Wale was one of His Majesties Justicies for Lancaster County, 1678. Children (Wale):

[11] WILLIAM³ (John², George¹), was probably born in Lancaster County, circa 1698. There is nothing to prove his birth, death or marriage in the records searched. He appears in the will of Elizabeth Brown, relict of John Wale, in 1714, and a William Wale of Wicocomoco Parish in Lancaster County, is fined 50 pounds of tobacco 9 Dec. 1737, for not having attended church for one month. He is used here as the only Wale extant who can fill in this gap, except Thomas, who is named in the will of Thomas Martin (1727), as his cousin.
